Dear All,

Forum on Graduate Students Affairs welcomes you to the APS March & April meetings. The advertised events and sessions are designed specifically for graduate students and we thought they would be interesting. Also, don’t forget to check out the other great special interest sessions going on throughout the conference.

FGSA wishes you a very fruitful and successful conference, and a creative and exciting academic year ahead.

Thank you and kind regards.

INDUSTRIAL PHYSICS FORUM: Innovation and Entrepreneurship
Sunday, March 17th, 2:30-5:30pm
Ballroom IV

CAREERS IN PHYSICS WORKSHOP
Sunday March 17, 4:30-7:30pm
Room 327

Students will hear a presentation from award-winning science career coach and author Peter Fiske on job search strategies for physicists. The presentation will not only focus on details like resume writing and interview skills, but will also focus on career planning. The presentation is free and open to all meeting attendees.

GRADUATE SCHOOL FAIR
March 18-20, 10:00am-4pm
Pratt Street Lobby

APS MARCH JOB EXPO
March 19-21, 10:00am-4pm
Exhibit Hall

In this event, employers will have an opportunity to meet with job seeking physics students, provide information on job openings, and conduct interviews on-site during the meeting. All job postings, resume searches, and scheduling will be coordinated through the APS Online Job Center.

MEET YOUR FUTURE: AN INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP ON INDUSTRIAL CAREERS FOR PHYSICISTS
Tuesday, March 19, 1:00-2:30pm
Key Ballroom 7
FIAP

In this special lunchtime session, three representatives from industry will conduct brief mini-workshops on the following topics such as Physics Entrepreneurship, the Nature of a Physics Job in Industry, and Best Practices for Searching, Applying, and Interviewing for Industrial Physics positions. This event is being organized in conjunction with FIAP, and includes Alice White (Alcatel-Lucent), Sam Wurzel (Octopart, Inc.) and Mark Bernius (formerly of Dow Chemical, and chair elect of FIAP)

STUDENT RECEPTION
Tuesday, March 19, 5:00-6:30pm
Key Ballroom 5
FGSA and Membership Department

Student attendees are invited to relax, have fun, and learn about programs and resources offered by APS and FGSA to serve student members. Light refreshments will be served.

GRADUATE STUDENT LUNCH WITH THE EXPERTS
Wednesday, March 20, 12:00-1:30pm
Convention Center; Sharp Street Lobby
Many Units

The Lunch with the Experts is an opportunity for students to have a one-on-one interaction with physicists while sharing a meal. This year, the FIAP has increased its participation in the Lunch with the Experts, so there should be a very robust representation from Industry at this year’s event.

KAVLI FOUNDATION SPECIAL SESSION:
Forefront Physics for Real World Problems: Energy, Climate, and the Environment
Wednesday, March 20, 2:30-5:30pm
Key Ballroom

CAREER PANEL AND NETWORKING SESSION
Friday, April 12, 7:00-9:00pm

This reception will feature a panel of working physicists representing a diversity of career and degree paths, followed by an open Q&A session. Students will have a chance to enjoy refreshments, learn about physics careers, and network and mingle.
